

Snowy Mountains

SPECIAL ACTIVATION PRECINCT

Acknowledgement of Country

1. Summary of consultation

2. Emerging themes

3. Next steps

Summary of consultation

- Ran 40 face to face small group sessions in Jindabyne
 - Hosted 5 online sessions
 - Held over 20 landowner and stakeholder meetings
 - Conducting Aboriginal engagement via Murawin
 - Promoted exhibition and activities via local print, radio, social media, media releases, posters, postcards
-
- 2155 submissions were received via the Planning Portal
 - Majority of CAG members made a submission
 - 3,392 visits to the webpage and 1,538 comments received on social pinpoint (interactive map)
 - 727 responses to the online survey

Emerging themes

| | |
|------------------|---|
| Submissions: | Protection of Environment / Kosciuszko National Park Transport & Housing Character of Jindabyne and growth of Jindabyne Social infrastructure, aged care and health services Tourism and economic diversity |
| Survey: | Main comments: Protection of the environment and of Aboriginal culture Housing and community infrastructure Most important aspects of the Master Plan Variety of community facilities for all age groups Better educational infrastructure and opportunities Improved transport in Jindabyne and to the ski resorts The least important aspect of the Master Plan Upgraded tourist accommodation and more tourist accommodation options More and better accommodation options for seasonal workers More residential accommodation and greater variety of housing types. |
| Social Pinpoint: | Most liked: Town Centre / Leesville Mountain Bike and Adventure Park Heritage Centre Least liked: Island Bend & Thredbo Ranger Stations Western Lake Jindabyne |

Next steps

- Reviewing and analysing formal submissions
- Completing environmental field surveys
- Reviewing and amending technical reports
- Drafting amendments to legislation
- Updating master plan from feedback
- Ongoing community consultation via the CAG
- Community engagement

